- An architectural rendering of a modern house. The main structure is a long, low rectangular building with a light-colored, textured facade. A large glass door is visible on the right side. To the left, a carport with a brown, ribbed roof is attached to the building, featuring a glass door and a small window. A car is parked inside the carport. The house is set on a light-colored foundation with a shadow cast to the left. In the foreground, a lower extension with a dark roof and glass walls is shown, connected to the main building by a bridge-like structure.
